arrangements can be made, the trip from this city to the trial course in Long Island Sound, near New London, will be made on the Dolphin. Unless present plans are changed, that vessel, with a distinguished party on board, will leave here next Saturday, and work her way easily up the coast to New York, and then to New London.

A general order has been issued by the War Department giving the names of offined to past ages. Lieut. P. J. Lowe, eighteenth infantry, and a Seminole Indian scout are mentioned for heroism in rescuing another Indian scout from drowning in Pecos river, Texas, in May, 1890. The enlisted men of company G. eighteenth infantry, are mentioned for skill, courses and the plane day. Apply to 2214 Cleveland place.

To Inspect the Canadian Frontier.

Mr. Stump, superintendent of immigration, will leave here Thursday next for a trip along the Canadian frontier to inspect the immigration system and see what improvements can be made to better the service. He will be accompanied by Dr. Senner, commissioner of immigration at New York. The number of inspectors along the border is now limited to one for each collection district. These are not believed to be sufficient to properly inspect the number of immigrants which annually enter the United States from the north, and it is believed that Mr. Stump will recommend that deputy inspectors be appointed to assist the
